

CellSonic is the only cure for osteonecrosis of the mandible.

The treatment has been pioneered by Dr Joseph Choukroun in Nice in France.

Patients are now going to Dr Choukroun from all over the world. He bought a CellSonic machine four years ago. Treatment is non-invasive and uses no drugs.

Is this the ultimate in healing?

- Above the neck
- Broken bone
- Damaged gum
- Patient in severe pain
- Unable to eat

Easy with the best equipment.

The best doctors choose CellSonic.

What are you doing with your CellSonic? Maybe you too are healing the impossible.
